IGNITER

Dear Member,

We have our first club event in the rear view mirror and want to thank the volunteers who made it a success. The 2018 Invitational Jet Rally included 18 registered jet pilots and a full day of wonderful flying weather. Dennis had invited the right people, Matt had the right food on hand and our field crew had our facilities ready to go. We had several members show up and help with registration and cooking. Thank you all !

The event cleared $525 which is always nice on top of supporting members and guests in participating in their favorite part of our hobby. Every time we have an event, somebody remarks that it would be nice to have more spectators. I agree to a point, but counter that our hobby is diverse enough to include activities that might not be of interest to everybody. I count it a wonderful blessing to be in a club where it doesn't create friction to devote a day at the field to exclusively one part of the hobby. In my book, it is a success to have come out in the black, and supported members who were interested in turbine powered aircraft as well as attracted pilots from across the bridge and as far away as Boston.

Time to do some serious safety checks on our squadron of aircraft and get some stick time logged.

The meeting on Wednesday will be AT THE FIELD.

See you there,

Jack

A Meeting was called to order on . . .

April 11, 2018 at the Train Station at 7pm. There were 12 members present. The Treasurer reported $939.72 in checking and $6,907.07 in savings with $150 in petty cash.

Upcoming jet rally was discussed. Members agreed to bring side dishes to share. Registered pilots would eat for free, but a sponsor had donated $200 to cover pilot meals. Of the 16 initial invitations sent out, 13 RSVP "Yes" had been received and some contact had been made with a couple of pilots from a club across the bridge. Volunteers would be put into service on the day- things are covered as far as anyone can tell.

The revised Field Rules which were discussed last month were officially voted and approved by the members present and a majority of the Club Board.

Several suggestions were mentioned for if we need to find a new flying site. Local dump sites and other fields near ours will be considered should the need arise.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 7:33pm.
